

● DON'T SETTLE FOR A SLOGAN

"All religions are the same" may sound tolerant, but it can prevent us from listening carefully to what different faiths actually teach.

Read the Gospel accounts and examine Jesus for yourself. Ask whether He really died and rose again, and whether His claims are true.

If Jesus is who the Bible says He is, then knowing Him is not merely one spiritual option among many.

● SALVATION IS A GIFT

The Christian message is not that one ethnic group or culture is better than another. Everyone stands in the same need of mercy.

"For it is by grace you have been saved through faith... it is the gift of God."

Ephesians 2:8

Turn from sin and trust in Jesus Christ. Salvation rests on what He has done, not on our ability to make ourselves worthy.

AREN'T ALL RELIGIONS BASICALLY THE SAME?

● DIFFERENCES REALLY MATTER

Different religions give conflicting answers to basic questions: Who is God? What is wrong with us? What happens after death? Who is Jesus? How can we be right with God?

Contradictory claims cannot all be true in the same sense.

Christianity therefore should not be accepted merely because it is one religion among many. Its claims about Jesus must be considered on their own terms.

● THE GOSPEL BEGINS WITH GRACE

The Bible says our deepest problem is sin. We have rebelled against the God who made us and cannot repair that guilt by religious effort.

"All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God."

Romans 3:23

The gospel is not a ladder by which good people climb up to God. It announces what God has done for people who cannot save themselves.

● JESUS IS CENTRAL

Jesus Christ, God's Son, lived without sin. He willingly died for sinners and rose from the dead.

Jesus said, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me."

John 14:6

That is an exclusive claim, but it accompanies an open invitation: people of every nation and background are called to come to Christ.
