

IF YOU WANT TO PRAY

There are no magic words that save. But you can speak honestly to God:

God, I have sinned against You and cannot make myself right with You. I need Your mercy. I believe Jesus died for sinners and rose again. I turn from my sin and put my trust in Jesus Christ. Please forgive me, make me Your own, and help me follow You. Amen.

Then begin reading the Bible - John is a good place to start - and seek a faithful church that teaches the Bible and centres on Jesus Christ.

COME TO CHRIST

You do not need to clean yourself up before coming to Jesus. Come admitting your sin and your need of mercy.

Repent: turn from sin and from living as your own ruler.

Believe: entrust yourself to Jesus Christ as your only Saviour and Lord.

"Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

ROMANS 10:13

Your confidence is not in the strength of your feelings, but in Christ and His finished work.

CAN GOD
REALLY
FORGIVE
ME?

01

GOD KNOWS THE TRUTH

God already knows the whole truth about us. Nothing is hidden from Him - not our actions, words, motives or thoughts.

The Bible's diagnosis is universal:

"For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God."

ROMANS 3:23

Our guilt is not imaginary. Sin is rebellion against the God who made us, and we cannot undo it by punishing ourselves or collecting enough good deeds.

02

FORGIVENESS HAS A COST

God does not forgive by pretending sin does not matter. His justice is perfect. That is why the cross of Jesus Christ is at the centre of the Christian message.

Jesus, the sinless Son of God, willingly took the place of sinners.

"He Himself bore our sins in His body on the tree."

1 PETER 2:24

At the cross we see both the seriousness of sin and the greatness of God's mercy.

03

JESUS ROSE AGAIN

Jesus was buried, but on the third day He rose from the dead. His resurrection declares that death has been defeated and that the gospel is not merely advice - it is news about what God has done.

Forgiveness is not earned. It is received by grace through faith in Jesus Christ.

"In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses."

EPHESIANS 1:7
